Dangers inherent in snow sports

Following are dangers inherent in snow sports

- 1) Dangers posed by irregular weather conditions such as snowfall, blizzard, rainfall and dense fog, including whiteout (a condition in which visibility and contrast are reduced by snowy weather)
- 2) Dangers posed by particular land conditions such as cliff, steep slope, ditch and mountain stream
- 3) Dangers posed by snow quality and snow surface conditions, such as icy slope, deep snow, crevasse and avalanche, including a tree well (void around the trunk of a tree enveloped in deep snow) and a tree hole (ground exposed around a tree following snow melting in early spring)
- 4) Dangers posed by natural objects such as a standing tree, a stump, thicket, rocks, exposed ground and waterway
- 5) Dangers posed by collision with artificial objects such as a support pillar of ski lifts, a snow-making facility, signs erected on ski grounds, ropes and mats
- 6) Dangers posed by collision with snowmobiles
- 7) Dangers posed by the use of snow parks
- 8) Dangers posed by excessive speeding by a skier
- 9) Dangers posed by fall of a skier
- 10) Dangers posed by collisions with other skiers
- 11) Health risks due to fatigue, drinking, drug and poor physical conditions
- 12) Dangers posed by the use of inappropriate ski gear
- 13) Dangers posed by other conditions similar to those listed above

Responsibilities of skiers

1. Skiing

- (1) Skiers must recognize inherent dangers in snow sports and ski while avoiding such dangers.
 - (2) Skiers must always move within the range of their vision and must stop or turn immediately if necessary.
- (Note 3) If skiers ski in the manner as described above, they can prevent most of collisions with other skiers or objects.

2. Riding a ski lift

- (1) People using a ski lift include not only people on the lift but also those who are waiting for the next lift to arrive and people who have just got off the lift.
- (2) People using a ski lift must read a notice board and ride the lift in accordance with the notice. Skiers who feel insecure about riding the lift must report the problem to the person in charge and seek assistance deemed necessary.

3. Observance of rules and instructions shown in signs and others

Skiers must behave in accordance with rules shown in signs and notice boards, instructions issued via a public speaker set up on the skiing ground, notes and warnings shown on the trail map, and instructions issued by patrolling officials.

4. Prohibited acts

Acts listed below are prohibited.

- (1) Skiing outside the course
- (2) Stepping in or skiing on closed courses
- (3) Skiing near standing trees, the support pillars of the lift, snow-making facilities, nets, ropes and mats
- (4) Skiing near other skiers
- (5) Blocking skiing by other skiers
- (6) Moving close to snowcats (ski-trail groomers) and other vehicles moving on snow
- (7) Hampering operations of ski lifts
- (8) Skiing under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- (9) Standing or sitting on a ski trail for a long time
- (10) Engaging in acts similar to those mentioned above

Important information about using the season ticket

■ Multiple contracts under the same name are not possible. Strictly one per person. ■ This ticket is valid during the opening period of the 2019/2020 season from the date of contract ■ This contract does not guarantee the actual opening period dates and specific operations at the ski resort ■ Resort operations and opening hours may need to be changed, cancelled or closed without prior notice due to snow conditions, bad weather, natural disasters or equipment failures. ■ Refunds are not possible once a ticket has been issued ■ * Apart from police agencies if required, private/personal information is never shared with any third party ■ Small dogs or cats can be put in a pet carrying bag (within 70 mm in length; 90 mm in length, width, and height total) that can be stored appropriately. If there is no risk of harm or inconvenience to other customers, the pets can be taken on the gondola lift with their owner.

Requests regarding usage of the season ticket

■ The season ticket can only be used by the applicant and cannot be shared by or sold to other people ■ Misuse of the season ticket is an illegal act ■ The season ticket cannot be reissued. If lost, please notify the resort immediately. ■ Staff will check the ticket at the ski lifts. Please have the ticket visible in an easy-to-check place. You may be asked to remove sunglasses, goggles, masks, etc. to verify identity ■ Please do not under any circumstances enter out-of-bounds areas of the resort. ■ Please be aware of the Code of Conduct and always keep to the rules of the ski resort - we want everyone to enjoy themselves!

Other notes

■ * Apart from police agencies if required, private/personal information is never shared with any third party. ■ * Useful information about the ski resort and offers may be sent to the supplied email address. ■ * We can only answer questions regarding a particular season ticket application when asked by the applicant themselves.

The season ticket contract will be cancelled if you do not follow the above precautions, or if you engage in illegal acts or acts that are extremely contrary to the manners of the ski resort. In such cases, a refund will not be available. In addition, we will also not accept applications for the following season.
