Important

■ How to use IC cards

- Always handle the IC card carefully without bending it or subjecting it to strong impact.
- If the data on the card is damaged, you will not be able to ride the ski lifts. A fee of 2,000 yen is required for card reissues.
- The IC card will need to be recognised at the platform gate before riding a ski lift.
- A camera at the gate is used to confirm identify. The data is not used for anything other than this specific purpose.

■ Important information about using the season ticket

- Refunds are not possible once a ticket has been issued.
- This contract does not guarantee the opening period or operations of the ski resort. Business conditions and circumstances may change due to snowfall, bad weather, natural disasters, equipment failures, spread of COVID-19 infections, etc. Opening and conditions may be changed or cancelled without prior notice.
- Customers who have applied by 30th November 2022 should receive their IC card lift ticket by post, usually within 1-2 months and by early December. Please be sure to complete the postal address for delivery within Japan. Tickets for applications after 1st December 2022 will be handed over at the information counter within the Resort Center building.

- Multiple contracts under the same name are not possible. Strictly one per person.
- This ticket is valid during the opening period of the 2022/2023 winter season from the date of contract

Season ticket planned valid period: 16th December 2022 until 2nd April 2023 (night skiing from 24th December until 12th March 2023).

※The Hatsukaichi Entrance and North Entrance plan to be open from 24th December 2022 until 26th March 2023.

※Night skiing in the Hatsukaishi Area is on Saturdays only. There is no night skiing in the North Area.

■ Requests regarding usage of the season ticket

- The ticket is only valid for the person stated on the ticket. The ticket will be invalidated without prior notice if it is determined that it has been used improperly. The ticket must not be transferred, lent to someone else or counterfeited. Ticket holders must always be clearly visible to the camera at the gate.

- The ticket is always required to ride the ski lifts. If you do not have the ticket with you, a same day ticket will need to be purchased from the ticket office to ride the lifts.

- If a ticket is lost, please contact the ski resort office immediately. A 2,000 yen fee is required for a reissue.
- Please do not under any circumstances enter out-of-bounds areas of the resort.
- Please be aware of the Code of Conduct and always keep to the rules of the ski resort - we want everyone to enjoy themselves!
- Small dogs or cats can be put in a pet carrying bag (within 70 mm in length; 90 mm in length, width, and height total) that can be stored appropriately. If there is no risk of harm or inconvenience to other customers, the pets can be taken on the gondola lift with their owner.

■ Other notes

- Apart from police agencies if required, private/personal information is never shared with any third party.
- We can only answer questions regarding a particular season ticket application when asked by the applicant themselves

■ Dangers inherent in snow sports

Following are dangers inherent in snow sports.

- 1) Dangers posed by irregular weather conditions such as snowfall, blizzard, rainfall and dense fog, including whiteout (a condition in which visibility and contrast are reduced by snowy weather).
- 2) Dangers posed by particular land conditions such as cliff, steep slope, ditch and mountain stream.
- 3) Dangers posed by snow quality and snow surface conditions, such as icy slope, deep snow, crevasse and avalanche, including a tree well (void around the trunk of a tree enveloped in deep snow) and a tree hole (ground exposed around a tree following snow melting in early spring).
- 4) Dangers posed by natural objects such as a standing tree, a stump, thicket, rocks, exposed ground and waterway.
- 5) Dangers posed by collision with artificial objects such as a support pillar of ski lifts, a snow-making facility, signs erected on ski grounds, ropes and mats.
- 6) Dangers posed by collision with snowmobiles . 7) Dangers posed by the use of snow parks. 8) Dangers posed by excessive speeding by a skier.
- 9) Dangers posed by fall of a skier. 10) Dangers posed by collisions with other skiers. 11) Health risks due to fatigue, drinking, drug and poor physical conditions.
- 12) Dangers posed by the use of inappropriate ski gear. 13) Dangers posed by other conditions similar to those listed above.

■ Responsibilities of skiers

1. Skiing
 - (1) Skiers must recognize inherent dangers in snow sports and ski while avoiding such dangers.
 - (2) Skiers must always move within the range of their vision and must stop or turn immediately if necessary.
 - (Note 3) If skiers ski in the manner as described above, they can prevent most of collisions with other skiers or objects.
2. Riding a ski lift
 - (1) People using a ski lift include not only people on the lift but also those who are waiting for the next lift to arrive and people who have just got off the lift.
 - (2) People using a ski lift must read a notice board and ride the lift in accordance with the notice. Skiers who feel insecure about riding the lift must report the problem to the person in charge and seek assistance deemed necessary.
3. Observance of rules and instructions shown in signs and others
Skiers must behave in accordance with rules shown in signs and notice boards, instructions issued via a public speaker set up on the skiing ground, notes and warnings shown on the trail map, and instructions issued by patrolling officials.

4. Prohibited acts

Acts listed below are prohibited.

- (1) Skiing outside the course (2) Stepping in or skiing on closed courses (3) Skiing near standing trees, the support pillars of the lift, snow-making facilities, nets, ropes and mats (4) Skiing near other skiers (5) Blocking skiing by other skiers (6) Moving close to snowcats (ski-trail groomers) and other vehicles moving on snow (7) Hampering operations of ski lifts (8) Skiing under the influence of alcohol or drugs (9) Standing or sitting on a ski trail for a long time (10) Engaging in acts similar to those mentioned above

※The season ticket contract will be cancelled if you do not follow the above precautions, or if you engage in illegal acts or acts that are extremely contrary to the manners of the ski resort. In such cases, a refund will not be available. In addition, we will also not accept applications for the following season.
